NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Star Ferry Company.
This morning the following notice was left at our office:—

EXPRESS.
THE STAR FERRY COMPANY, LIMITED.
On and after To-day the price of First class punch tickets of 25 rides will be $2.50 each.
On and after the 1st January, 1902, the First class cash fare will be 15 cents for one journey. No alteration in the price of season tickets.
Hongkong, 20th December, 1901.

We must say that we cannot understand this announcement. Can it be that some evil disposed person is trying to work a rise out of the Kowloon community. We hope that it is so, for a rise of fifty per cent in the first class fare is, to say the least of it, in the nature of an imposition. We know, of course that the Ferry Company holds a monopoly of the traffic between Hongkong and Kowloon; but that is no excuse for an attempt of this sort, which is simply a squeeze.

We all know that the Ferry paid well years ago when the traffic was much less than at present and paid twelve per cent. last year, and we really fail to see why fares should not be reduced rather than increased, for the earnings of the Company must have increased in direct proportion to the number of passengers carried. If this is not the case there must be something radically wrong somewhere.

THE CUSTOMS GAZETTE issued by the China Imperial Maritime Customs is now to hand. It contains 282 pages of statistics dealing with the quarterly returns of trade from July to September last. THE HIGH PRICE of lump coal at Tientsin has necessitated the using of dust coal by the natives, who can purchase it at a much lower price. But as a large quantity of the dust coal now on sale at Tientsin has been brought from the East and West Arsenals, it contains some cartridges, which were mixed with the coal during the late war. The consequence is that occasionally a rifle bullet shoots out of the stoves which burn such dust coal.

FAITH OR FRIGHT HEALING? There is an old tradition among bon vivants that a sudden shock will cure those inconvenient "spasmodic convulsions of the diaphragm," which are apt to be the result of dining not wisely but too well. A curious illustration of belief in this cure was given the other night by a well-known man about town while walking down Piccadilly with a friend, says To-day. Suddenly the sufferer uttered a loud and savage cry. "What on earth is the matter?" asked his companion nervously. "It's all right," was the tranquil reply; "I was only trying to frighten—myself."

GLOBULES.—The latest idea for combating sea-sickness has been propagated by a Frenchman, who suggests that a Channel service of submarines should be instituted. The boats are to be drawn from shore to shore on a long, steel wire, and the inventor confidently expects that the idea will shortly find general favour. It is said that the desire for suicide in France is greatly increasing.

There are in existence at Dresden and Frankfurt two colleges for waiters, where men may learn how to wait at table, the proper way to fold up napkins, the art of carving, and the most correct manner of showing guests to their seats, and, in short, the thousand and one things that go to make up the complete waiter. There has been a great outcry against the tipping system of late, but this particular form of getting tips is to be encouraged rather than otherwise.

A TURK IN CHINA.—A correspondent writes from Newchwang to the N. C. D. News, that earlier in the year a representative of the Mahomedan Mission from Turkey visited Ashih, 70 li from Karbin, and stayed for several days with the large body of Mahomedans there. He carried his own cooking utensils, plates, etc., and insisted on his dishes being used by himself and others even when invited out as a guest. The local Mahomedans felt rebuked by his greater scrupulousness in the observing of the rules of purity. He encouraged them to show a bold front in adverse times, as he could quickly come to their help. He showed them pictures of balloons, giving them to understand—though they may have misunderstood him—that he would come to their aid, if they were oppressed, by means of such modern inventions. Except that he wore a turban, he was in Western dress, and he came via Vladivostok.

THE FILIPINOS in the Island of Samar have been ordered by the American authorities to concentrate in the towns, or to be outlawed. Several native civil officials have been arrested for aiding the insurgents.

A JAPANESE barber has been arrested for having in his possession some statues of Buddha said to have been stolen from the Burmese Wat near Ban-ta-wai. The Japanese said he bought them from some European.

HEAVEN'S DISPLEASURE.—The Lung Ta Stee, one of the two temples devoted to the protection of the Imperial palaces, has been destroyed by fire and this is regarded by some as a sign of Heaven's displeasure.

TAIKOO CLUB SPORTS.—As will be seen by reference to our advertisement columns, the entries for the Taikoo Club Sports close to-morrow. The sports will take place on New Year's Day and are bound to be well attended, both by spectators and competitors. The Taikoo folk always do things well.

A DEMONSTRATION was made on Saturday morning at the Mixed Court at Shanghai and afterwards at the Central Police Station by a large number of native women who had formerly been employed in the Yeh Loong Cotton-Mill previously to its being closed. As far as can be learned, their grievance seemed to be that a shroff of the mill had absconded without paying them their wages—some four weeks or so being due. They were easily dispersed by the police.

LIEUT.-COMMR. WATSON of H. M. S. Woodcock, who has the distinction of having carried the British white ensign to Kiating in Western Szechuan, 315 miles above Chungking, on the gunboat he has so long and ably commanded, left Chungking on the 2nd instant by kuaitze, having handed over command of the Woodcock to his successor, Lieut.-Commr.

SHOOTING.—The Hongkong Rifle Association will hold a Spoon Competition to-morrow, commencing at 2.45 p.m. Ranges two hundred, five hundred and six hundred yards. It is to be hoped that the weather will prove more propitious than it has done to-day, otherwise shooting is likely to be somewhat wild.

RESOURCEFUL. "T. A."—There is no limit to the resource of Tommy Atkins for his amusement, no matter how great his loneliness on the veldt. A lady in South Africa writes that on visiting the soldiers at a station near De Aar, she found them playing draughts on a ruled newspaper with their regimental buttons.

THE NUMBER OF VESSELS entered at Canton during the third quarter of the year was 709 as against 930 in the same period of 1900, and the number cleared was 713 compared with 953 the corresponding quarter of last year. Of those numbers there were 387 steamers and eleven sailing vessels entered from Hongkong, and 416 steamers and ten sailing vessels cleared for the Colony.

A NEW SYSTEM of house erection is said to have been tried and proved successful. Instead of building brick by brick, the structures are formed by pouring a kind of cement between moulds. When it has set the moulds are removed, leaving the house standing in one solid piece. Needless to state it will not be tried in Hongkong, where so many systems have failed.

THE CHARGE against Mr. R. A. Hendricks, Malay and Siamese Interpreter at H. B. M. Consulate Bangkok, of having on or before October 22nd last, stolen an extract of an entry in a register of births in the colony of Hongkong from H. B. M. Consulate office, and with having sold or otherwise disposed of the same to a Chinaman named Tay Kow Keng has been decided in favour of the defendant.

THE HOPE, DIAMOND originally weighed 112 carats. It was bought in India in 1632 by M. Tavernier, a well-known French traveller, who sold it to Louis XIV. It was one of the jewels of the French crown until 1792, when it was seized by the revolutionists and deposited in the Garde Meuble. Some time later it was stolen, and absolutely no trace of it could be found. In 1839, however, the stone, which had been considerably cut, came into the possession of Mr. Ellison, and was pronounced by experts to be part of the stone bought in India.

LI AND THE NOVELIST.—The following story concerning the late Li Hung Chang and Mr. Richard Harding Davis, the American novelist and war correspondent, appears in the current issue of Today.—"When, a few years back, Li visited the United States he had Mr. Davis as a fellow-passenger, and the two got into conversation. Questioned by the Chinese Viceroy, Mr. Davis stated that he was a writer by profession, and was at that time engaged in writing a novel. When he received this intelligence, Li turned on his heel, with a look of utter disdain on his face, and as he parted from Mr. Davis, said cuttingly, 'Writing a novel! indeed! You ought to be ashamed of yourself! A big, strong, able-bodied man like yourself, ought to be at work. Why don't you find some work to do?' To this question Mr. Davis was discreetly silent."

A NEW BOOK.—The Chinese Soldier and Other Sketches, by Alfred Cunningham, is a little book that ought to become very popular amongst Hongkongites, and which will serve as a capital souvenir for residents and globe-trotters to send home. The sketches are interesting, well written and full of interest, dealing as they do with matters ranging from a Chinese telegraph office to the fall of Manila. The book is illustrated throughout by a series of capital photographs, and a Chinese picture of the art of war, which is placed at the end, should win the heart of any one from its grotesqueness and gaudy colouring, not to speak of the weird antics in which the persons depicted are engaging. Mr. Cunningham's work gives the outsider a glimpse of China and the Philippines in a chatty and interesting manner, and the get-up of the volume, in true Chinese style, makes it a curio in itself. We were much interested in its perusal and wish Mr. Cunningham all the success that he so fully deserves in this his latest effort. The book is on sale at all the local booksellers at two dollars per copy.

THE EXECUTION AT THE GOAL.

INQUEST.

The inquest on the body of Kwok Tak Kung, the head of the pirate gang, who shot Chan Shing Tak at Cup-sui-mun, on the 12th August last, and was sentenced to death by the Acting Chief Justice on the 22nd November was held yesterday afternoon at the Gaol by Coroner Hazeland.

The first witness called was Mr. Edgar John Pierpoint, the Chief Warden at the Gaol, who deposed that the body which the jury had viewed was that of Kwok Tak Kung, who was received into prison on the 22nd Nov., under sentence of death. That sentence, he said, was duly carried out at 5.8 that morning, there being present the Assistant Superintendent, Mr. R. H. Craig, Dr. Lamort, the Acting Medical Officer, himself, and the usual escort of officers.

Dr. R. Lamort, the Acting Medical Officer at the Victoria Gaol, stated that he was called to the prison early that morning, and was present at the execution of Kwok Tak Kung. Death was caused instantaneously by dislocation of the first and second vertebrae, as was revealed afterwards by an autopsy.

The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical testimony, and the depositions were forwarded to H.E. the Governor.

ALLEGED ARMED ROBBERY.

At the Magistracy this morning before Mr. F. M. Hazeland Kwok Wai, hawker, of West Point, Kong Chan Shing, firewood dealer, Praya, W. Ng Tu, fireman, Praya, W., and Lam Leung, cook, of Tai-kok-tsin were charged with robbing Man Yung, an oyster dealer, while being armed with revolvers at Castle Peak, on the 16th inst. It is alleged that they stole from him five pieces of clothing, a blanket, a cigar holder, a silver watch and chain, one jade-stone bangle, and $65 in money.

They were remanded until to-morrow morning.

THE CATHOLIC UNION.

The following appeal is issued by the above institution:—

Mission House, China Road.

Hongkong, December, 1901.

A XMAS APPEAL ON BEHALF OF THE POOR CHILDREN AND THE POOR OLD PEOPLE WHOSE HARDSHIPS ARE MANY AND PLEASURES FEW.

Dear Sir,—We know that you are very busy at this time of the year, but we know your goodness and we are fully confident that in spite of the pressure of business, you are always gladly willing to do something, any little thing that is within your reach in assisting us in our THIRD YEAR OF CHRISTMAS-TREE ENTERTAINMENTS TO THE POOR CHILDREN AND THE OLD PEOPLE.

With the help of our kind friends last year we were able to provide Xmas Treats to about 500 Children and 150 Old People. To continue effectively the work this year we need everybody's help.

If every reader of this appeal would send along one thing, the total number of gifts would leap from tens to hundreds.

SIMPLE INEXPENSIVE ARTICLES are the best for our purpose. Send anything in the way of Toys, Picture books, Scrap books, Sweets, Cakes, Bonbons, which children revel in. Costly toys and clothings are unsuitable.

The gifts will be distributed to the Poor Children in the rooms of the Orphanage, Glenally on Christmas Day at 3 p.m. where and when they will be gathered for a Tea-Party. We shall be glad if you will be present on the occasion, for if you were to witness the joys of the children, and to see the pleasure given you would feel indeed amply compensated for the assistance rendered.

Any gift you can send will be gratefully received by our Chaplain, the Revd. Father G. M. Spada, or by

Yours faithfully,

W. GARDNER,

Vice-President.

THE RETURN OF THE COURT.

YUNG LU KEEPS HIS WORD.

K'AI-FENG, 14th December.

Yesterday (13th) the weather turned out cold and lowering, and in the evening it came on to drizzle. At about midnight, however, it became clear again and at 10 o'clock this morning their Majesties made the first move on their return journey to Peking. This was the crossing of the Yellow River at Liuyuan (outside the city walls of K'ai-feng); their Majesties luncheon on board the Imperial barge, en route. The Imperial Travellers will pass the night at Hsintien, the first stage of the return journey towards Peking. —N. C. D. News, Cor.

Commenting on the above the North China Daily News says:—

According to the K'ai-feng telegram published this morning in another column, it will be observed that their Majesties, the Emperor and the Empress Dowager, with the rest of the Court, have kept faith and have started on the date fixed the other day by Imperial Edict, namely, the 14th of December, for the return journey to Peking, leaving K'ai-feng at 10 o'clock on the morning of that day (Saturday). As will be remembered by readers of these columns, it was stated on Saturday morning on reliable authority that the Grand Secretary Yung Lu had, in reply to anxious enquiries from one of the highest Chinese officials at present in Shanghai, a few days ago, declared that H. E. was certain the Court would start on the date named. News received yesterday from K'ai-feng now states that H. E.'s reply was sent on account of the rumours that had suddenly sprung up that the Empress Dowager was afraid to return to Peking on the date fixed by her, owing to the non-settlement of the Manchurian question and the failure of Viceroy Yuan Shih-k'ai in persuading the Foreign Representatives to give up the Provisional Government at Tientsin. Besides what has been given of the reply of Yung Lu, it is now stated that H. E. further asked the high official in question and also those of the Yangtze provinces "to keep up their hearts as he was using all his best endeavours and influence with the Empress Dowager to persuade her to listen to his advice and return to Peking, and that he would guarantee that their Majesties would leave K'ai-feng for Peking on the date fixed." In a previous telegram to the same high officials it is stated that H. E. declared to them that he was convinced that China needed peace and amicable relations with foreign nations and that he would stake even his own life to attain this end. "For my life is of no account when compared to the preservation of the dynasty and the peace and integrity of the Empire," and that he was ready to meet whatever fate had in store for him in Peking, so long as he could persuade the Court to return to that city. The telegram from K'ai-feng, reporting that the Court had actually commenced its return journey towards Peking on the date fixed, may be taken, therefore, as a proof that Yung Lu has kept his word, and that more may be expected from his efforts to consolidate friendly relations between China and the Powers.

ASSAULT.

Henry Thompson, a stoker, on H.M.S. Crispy got astray in Ship Street the other night and assaulted four "ladies" of easy virtue. He paid $3 into the Colonial Exchequer.

THE DEADLY DRUG.

Lau Chung Chi collects rates, in addition to trading in opium. Whether he is very successful in his former capacity is a matter of doubt. The other day he was found with 14 taels and three mace of prepared opium, and 14 taels eight mace of dross. He preferring paying $350 to going to gaol for three months.

Pung Hong keeps a store, and Wong Sing deals in fish. Pung was unlawfully possessed of two taels of prepared opium, and Wong was satisfied with a smaller quantity of dross. The storekeeper got six weeks, and his fish colleague a month with hard labour.

HE LOST HIS ARMS.

Lau Kwan is evidently a fighting man. He was found unlawfully possessed of three revolvers and 75 cartridges, and when accused assaulted a constable. He could not pay $250 on the first count and got three months, and for the assault he goes to prison for another month. The arms and ammunition were forfeited.

FOOCHOW NOTES.

Foochow, December 14th.

H. I. G. M. Cruiser Geler arrived at Pagoda on the 10th instant.

The Winter Race Meeting, which extended over Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday this week, was a great success. The weather was all that could be desired and the attendance was larger than ever known. The enjoyment of the three days was greatly enhanced by the presence of a band which came up each day through the kindness of Commander Hilbrand of the Geler.

At the Auction of the Race ponies this afternoon, the following prices were realised, Sans-About $60; Chicane $50; Poncher $35; Pegasus $22; Touffé $30; Colobock $21; Nutberry $55; Rose de France $175; Mergury and Sabrina advertised for the sale were withdrawn before the auction.

The repetition of the performance of "Liberty Hall" which took place last night was a great success. The representation was considered even better than that of a fortnight ago.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Dearest Minnie, Behold me bubbling with news of all kinds, but the closing of the Mail knows no favour and you must needs rest content with a sketch of our past week.

The players in the Tennis Tournament were steadily at work from two o'clock till dusk set in and there were many hard fought games. The couples were planned to make a close finish and it was truly exciting to watch which of the "favourites" would be "first past the post." You perceive, even I have caught the racing fever, and why not, when it proves a worthy excuse for three new gowns, and furbelows to match. Woe betide any hope of a rechauffé of last season's doubtful best; it has to be the freshest of the fresh to stand the test of our brilliant sunshine. The Grand Stand and Paddock were bright and very gay. You would perchance not look for smartness from an outpost tucked away in the depths of China land, but there was much to be seen on all three race days that would not have been worn amiss in Bond Street. How can I write of racing, who only watch the ponies that carry the bonnies! colours, but everyone seemed glad at everyone else's wins and never an overcast face did I see, went the luck never so far astray. Alas! that the coming man in Foochow follows not in the steps of those who, in the good old days, owned trained and rode their own ponies, but far be it from me to repine if this brings jockeys from the North and South, fresh faces and all so welcome. Feminine fancies always centre round the race for the Ladies' Purse and the gift of the more than twenty coveted sovereigns was an interesting episode. Have you ever, I wonder, realized the attractions of a stable tea? There is much to commend the bearing off of one's weary and dusty person by some kindly owner's wife, to the refreshment of a comfortable chair accompanied by tea and sweet things. The stables for the time being are converted into the snuggest nooks, bright with bunting and your hostess' colours. We have all realized long since that appetite is the best sauce, and many a day have we hungered for such a Band as has most graciously beautified our Race week, and should its favours extend to the Ball on Monday it will make your scribble one glad atom in a joyous throng.

Following hard on the Races came the repetition of "Liberty Hall," and it says much when amateur acting will bear a second inspection. You had but verdict a week ago, and that but an echo of the praises on all sides, a fresh chorus of which has now broken out afresh. Over all the sun shone blithely and the rain and wind have stayed away till a more convenient season. Yours lovingly

—Eiko. ELIZABETH.

NEW GUINEA.

Papers laid before the States General show that strenuous efforts are in progress to establish formally the authority of the Government in Dutch New Guinea. Officials have already been stationed at several spots, but they have not done much in gaining an influence over the wild inhabitants of the land. A good deal of surveying work has been carried out, and certain savages who had made raids into British New Guinea have been severely punished. Hopes are held out of greater progress in settlement in the near future. Many European traders and pearl fishers have applied to the local Dutch authorities to settle in Netherlands New Guinea. One of them is Mr. M. J. Lake, a wealthy pearler. Another is the great Australian firm of Burns Philp and Co., which wants to start in that quarter a branch of its business. It is expected that, when the first step is taken to establish an effective and well-organised form of government in Dutch New Guinea, a flow of trading immigrants will set in to the south coast. These immigrants will probably be mainly Japanese, Filipinos, and Chinese from Thursday Island and Queensland, fleeing from the Asiatic immigration restriction laws in Australia. They prefer the south coast of Dutch New Guinea so as to be close to Thursday Island which is an important port of call. The Roman Catholic missionaries there, of whom many are Netherlands, favour labouring in Dutch New Guinea, and have repeatedly asked leave to form stations on the south coast of that possession. The main hindrance to settlement on any large scale lies in the savagery and lawlessness prevalent in the Dutch section. Measures have been taken to curb these evils. The Tugere tribe especially have suffered severely at the hands of the Dutch authorities. The unhealthy climate of the coast districts is the main obstacle in the way of bringing these savages under—Strait Times.

A DISTINCTION WITH A DIFFERENCE.

On Mr Justice Wills taking his seat in the King's Bench Division recently a special juror asked to be excused from serving on the ground that he was a member of the Bar. His lordship inquired if the applicant was a practising barrister, which drew a reply in the negative, but applicant explained that he had practised in a British Colony, and had only recently returned to England. He was a member of Lincoln's Inn.

His lordship said that exemption from service applied to practising barristers only, and he refused the application.

THE CURSE OF CIVILISATION.

The temperance question is now becoming a subject of European interest. At the recent meeting in Germany of the "Society for Combating the Use of Spirituous Liquors" some very interesting German statistics were given. It seems that in Germany £30,000,000 are spent annually on alcohol, as against only four times that amount spent on food. Then every man, woman, or child in Germany consumes on an average thirty litres of spirits in a year—i.e., about five glasses per day. In some provinces the drinking habits are certainly alarming. In Upper Silesia, for example, when a child cries, a sponge dipped in spirits is put in its mouth. But notwithstanding this evidence of figures, the speeches at Breslau were of a very hopeful character.

A BATH-ROOM ADVENTURE.

The first morning after my arrival in Stockholm I rang the bell in my room and asked the man who answered it to get me a bath ready. He disappeared, and some ten minutes later another knock woke me from a gentle doze. I opened my eyes to see a hard-featured lady, some forty to fifty years of age, standing in the doorway and beckoning to me with a bare and stalwart arm. Concluding that she wished to show me the way to the bath-room, I jumped out of bed and padded after her down the passage.

Very well, then. When we arrived at the bath-room she went in before me and waited. She was as I have said, a muscular lady, and her dress was innocent of sleeves. Concealing my nervousness as best I might, I put my hand into the water nodded to indicate that it was just as I liked it, and made her a graceful bow of dismissal. Imagine my horror, when she simply shook her head, and refused to move! In vain it was that I talked to her pleadingly, persuasively, sternly, in English, French, American, Coater, Latin, Hebrew, and Greek. Still she smiled and waited.

The situation, you will understand, was rapidly growing desperate, and, in the end, I found myself reluctantly compelled to use force. Executing a strategic movement, therefore, I seized her suddenly by the shoulders, pushed her into the passage, and slammed the door. It was not gallant, but what would you! I afterwards discovered that, in accordance with the custom of the country, she considered her duty to scrub me down. Shades of my babyhood!

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE, HONGKONG.

OWING to the insufficiency of accommodation in the present building and the increasing demand for admission, it has been found necessary to extend the wings of the main building and to enlarge the Chinese department by an additional storey with two wings. The estimated cost will amount to over $15,000. To cover these expenses we appeal to the liberality of all friends of Education. The establishment has been in existence for the last 25 years and is open to all classes. Much of the clerical work of the city is carried on by its past pupils. As this is the first time we have applied for assistance we expect a generous response. The names of our most liberal benefactors will be inscribed upon marble tablets, as a lasting testimony of their generosity. THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS, Hongkong, 22nd November, 1901.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

THERAPION.

This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed.

THERAPION No. 1, in a few days only, removes all discharges from the urinary organs, effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION No. 2, for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swellings of the joints, secondary symptoms, disease of the bones, sore throat, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No. 3, for nervous exhaustion, waste of vitality, and all the distressing consequences arising from early error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated.

THERAPION may be procured of the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the world. Price in England 2/9 and 4/6. In ordering, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires, and observe that the word "THERAPION" appears on the Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every genuine package by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.
